Southern Commercial Convention. RICHMOND, Feb. 2.

The Commercial Convention adopted a resolution declaring that the establish ment of a line of first class steamers, to sail between Liverpool and some Southern port, was highly import nt, and recommended that Southern Legislatures should use efforts to procure vessels when convenient.

At a dinner, this afternoon, Governor Wise made a strong speech in favor of internal improvements.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb 2. Orders have been sent by Government to Pensacola, for the ste, mer Ful ton to proceed in search of the bark Amelia, which sailed from Port at Prince for New York, on December 2, having been seized on account of her supposed connection with a fillibustering expedition. "Monsieur Tonson Come Again." The Subscriber informs his fine HOTEL under favorable auspices. In-reased experience enables him to provide for he wants and comforts of all who may favor him with their patronage; and he has effected arrangements in this and other markets for fornishing his table and house generally, with the requisites of a first rate Hotel. By the present Railroad schedule, passengers by the down train will stop at this house for an interval sufficient to dine leisurely, and they and "the rest of mankind" will always find a hot dinner, such as he hopes will gratify any appetite.

AND ONE PRICE ONLY, will strictly be adhered to. Therefore my friends may rest assured, that great principal, fair dealings, between man and man is my aim, and those favoring me with their patronage, will have no cause of regret. If the public will be convinced, the above is correct, all they have to do, is, to call on me and they will find me attentive and at my place. Remember at the Major off Stand, and whoever wishes to see him will find him there also, as he is setting in his affairs. Respectfully,

JACOB M. WOLFF.

Dr. Acberts' Cholic Bi sture ...

Infairle.

Intense pain of the howels occurs, during infancy, under certain circumstances where there is no reason to suspect as its cause, any disturbance of the digestive function from the bad quality, or nadoc quantity of the food.

It frequently occurs daily by the enset infarious anodyne subscances, such as Landanum, Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Gudfrey's Cordial, &c., are too countroaly resuried as by the anxious mather. They produce essitiveness, and distressing accompanies which remost the remoty were than singlificance.

The poculiar advantages of Roberts Cholic Pixture, consists in its giving instant relief to path, procuring bedity and refracting slavuber, whilst its tendency is to open subter than bind up the browels.
